

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

FEDERAL COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT IN SESSION.

The Case of Zach Rhodes, a Revenue Officer, Charged With Murder—The Egypt Railroad to be Extended Northward.

WELDON, N. C., Nov. 30.—Special.—The Federal court for the Eastern district of North Carolina is now in session at Raleigh, Judge Seymour, of the district court, presiding. Judge Bond is detained at home by sickness, neither is it thought that Judge Goff will be present during the term. There are thirty cases on the criminal docket and twenty-six on the civil docket. The latter will be increased by presentments from the grand jury. An important case before the court is that of the State of North Carolina against Zach Rhodes, a revenue officer, charged with murder while attempting to seize an illicit distillery. Another important case is the suit of Mrs. Crabtree, of Wilmington, this State, against the Old Dominion Steamship Company for five thousand dollars damages for injuries received by a fall on one of the company's steamers.

Hoke Secret, charged with the murder of his wife and child near Hickory, some years ago, and burying them in a secluded spot, was captured at Spartanburg, S. C., and is now in custody. He was twice made his escape from the asylum. It is said he will again be tried for his life in McDowell county for the same crime.

The Egypt railway, which at present extends from Colon, on the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line to Egypt, in Chatham county, is to be extended quite a number of miles westward, and bonds to pay for this extension are now being floated. But meantime the Glencliff and Gulf railroad, a corporation chartered by the last Legislature, is under way and has trespassed, the Egypt road claims, upon its property, or rather taken possession of the right of way and graded it for two or three miles. A suit was brought, and the question argued at Oxford before Judge Connor, at chambers, but no decision has been rendered. The Egypt company wants to build its road. The company in addition to the road now operated and to be extended, also owns the famous coal mines in Chatham county, which experts say will yield fifteen million tons of coal. New machinery has just been put in, which will make the daily yield three hundred tons.

Last week in Cleveland county, John Noland, aged forty-four, died of a most horrible death from hydrophobia. About five months ago Noland was bitten on the hand by a dog supposed to be rabid. He went to Lincoln and had a mad stone applied to the wound. The stone adhered repeatedly, and it was thought all danger was over. Some time after he became delirious and of difficulty in swallowing water, and the next day while attempting to drink was seized with convulsions and died in a few hours in great agony, notwithstanding the efforts of the physicians to relieve him. He chewed his tongue literally to pieces.

The dwelling house, furniture and some money of George Guilford's, at Durham's Creek, near Washington, were recently destroyed by fire. The whole was a total loss, there being no insurance.

Capital stock for a second bank has been subscribed at Washington, and it will soon be opened for business. The records of Wayne, Sampson, Duplin and Johnston counties show a recent transaction of considerable magnitude, the North State Lumber Company having executed to the Baltimore Trust and Guarantee Company a mortgage and secured the issue of the one hundred thousand dollars in gold coupon bonds for the purpose of constructing a manufacturing plant.

The towns located at junction points throughout the company's property are all making strenuous efforts to secure the plant, and the Richmond and Danville, the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley roads and the Atlantic Coast Line are more interested in the location of the mills.

J. M. Morris, general agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, recently visited Durham investigating the advisability of extending to that place the branch road which now runs from Rocky Mount to Sprinkhouse. It has long been thought that the branch would be extended, and Raleigh has been anxious to have it, but nothing definite is known of the intention of the railroad officials. It is evident, however, that the road will finally be extended to one of those places.

Rosina Vokes at the Theatre.

Miss Rosina Vokes and her London comedy company delighted a fashionable audience at the Richmond Theatre last evening. The spectators, though not in full dress, made a pretty scene in the blue of a house, and the beauties of Richmond's fashionable world were there in considerable number.

There were two comediettas and a farce comedy presented, and each served as a delightful spoonful of enjoyment. First there was that dainty little bit called "Crocodyl Tears." Then "The Circus Rider," and last, "My Lord in Livery."

The first comedietta served to prove that Miss Vokes had brought with her a company of superior merit, and that Felix Morris is the same fun-loving, happy comedian. Cottachalk, too, had some clever funny lines and words to advantage.

It was not until the "Circus Rider" was presented, however, that the audience had a glimpse of Miss Vokes. She is the same pretty woman, ever bewitching and piquant, and her smiles, nods and the brightness of her eyes are personal. The clever little work by Mrs. Charles Dorn, mus, gives the English comedienne full opportunity to display her splendid talents, and the audience showered most liberally upon her well-deserved plaudits.

The farce comedy of the "third act" was splendidly done, and Mr. Courtney Thorpe did a conscientious and wonderfully clever piece of work as Lord Thirlmere. He is a young man, but possesses talent of a superior order.

As a whole Miss Vokes and her company made just as much of genuine, good and wholesome fun in the three hours they played as can be crowded in that length of time, and they to-night will be greeted by another large audience.

The program for this evening is as follows: "The Rose" (new), a play in one act by Minnie Maddern Fluke; G. W. Godfrey's exquisite comedietta, "My Millionaire's Bill" (in which Miss Vokes will sing her famous song, "His Art Was True to Love"), and "A Double Bill," a comedietta in one act by B. C. Stephenson.

CHARLOTTESVILLE LAND CO.

Annual Meeting Is Held—Cash Assets of the Company—Piedmont Hospital.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Nov. 30.—Special.—The annual meeting of the Charlottesville Land Company was held yesterday. More than two-thirds of the stock was represented in person or by proxy. Full reports of the year's operations were submitted, and received careful attention.

Last year's report showed a stock liability of $311,300. This year the liability on the same account is $309,952. The total liability of the company, exclusive of stock of the company, is now $312,422, as against $303,233 last year. The cash assets of the company, exclusive of stock dues, are now $42,564, as against $35,855 last year. These assets are believed to be collectable, but in any event, the bad debts will not reduce the assets to the amount of the company's liabilities.

During the past year real estate to the amount of $51,500 was sold.

Officers were elected as follows: President, George W. Morris; Vice-President, Judge John L. Cochran; Directors, the president and vice-president, James B. Wood, Frank P. Parish, Dr. J. Edgar Chancellor, Daniel Harmon and W. R. Duke. Frank A. Massie was elected secretary and treasurer, and Judge John M. White, general manager.

By a stock vote of 2,307 shares for and 72 against, a resolution was adopted as the sense of the stockholders that a lot drawing is inexpedient and should be abandoned, if it could be done fairly; that the directors should make no provision for a drawing until every effort has been made to induce the stockholders to abandon it.

The board of lady managers of the Piedmont Hospital, a charity which has commended itself to the benevolent ladies of this city, after a service of six years in their resignation to the Ladies' Aid Society. The Society was so well pleased with the management of the board that the old incumbents were re-elected as follows: Mrs. C. S. Venable, president; Mrs. Hugh Nelson, vice-president; Mrs. E. Norris, treasurer; Mrs. Noah K. Davis, secretary; Miss Eliza Howard, Mrs. P. H. Smith, Mrs. J. Tyler Jackson, lady managers. To these were added, as a committee on the hospital, Mrs. John B. Minor, Mrs. Philip Leterman, Mrs. Turpin, Mrs. S. Leterman, Mrs. Young and Mrs. M. Leterman.

Arrested in New York.

Sheriff Simon Solomon, of Henrico county, left last night at 7:30 o'clock on a Northern train for Port Jervis, Orange county, N. Y.

He carried with him extradition papers from Governor Flower, of New York, for Samuel Rackett, who had been arrested in the Henrico County Court for betraying under promise of marriage Floyd Yeaman.

Rackett was indicted in July, but had some time previously left the city. The officers in Chief Poe's office were acquainted with the facts, and Detectives Purdie and Hall during their leisure moments worked on the case.

They had no assistance whatever from the county authorities, although the crime occurred some hundred yards outside of the corporation limits, on Twentieth street. The two detectives soon located Rackett at Port Jervis, and a requisition was asked for from Governor McKinney. The accused being indicted, the Governor immediately issued a requisition, and yesterday the extradition papers were received from New York's chief executive.

In the meantime Rackett had been arrested by the police of Port Jervis. He left a photograph in Richmond, and by that was identified by the New York officers.

Rackett will be twenty-one on July 19th next, and before leaving Richmond was employed as shipping clerk at Randolph's Pottery and Glass Works. The young woman was employed at the same establishment at the same time as a worker on boxes.

Death of Mr. Weldon Haskins.

Colonel Meade Haskins received a telegram late last night announcing the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, Mr. Weldon Haskins, which occurred at Goshen, Va., last night at 10 o'clock.

Particulars of his demise was given. The deceased was thirty-five years of age, and was engaged in the real estate business at Goshen.

Colonel Haskins will leave the city today for Goshen.

Mrs. Deacon's Denial.

PAID, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Deacon says, regarding the charge that her husband would name as correspondents in a suit for divorce, Prince Le Pol, Leon Bonnet and Count Rochefort, that her acquaintance with the gentlemen mentioned is most formal. I know their wives slightly, but the husbands have never been in my house.

HEART FAILURE.

The Warnings Are Plain—Beware.

The Boston Record, speaking of the death from heart failure of Senator Plumb, Senator Zach Chandler, Congressman Ray, Secretary Windom and scores of other prominent men who have died from the same trouble, asks: "What is this heart failure?"

Is there any escape from it, or is it the inevitable result of the dangerously slow poisoning under which so many of us are living?

No hour passes that some one does not drop dead of heart failure. The Record has struck the key-note of the cause, but there is a remedy. The first symptoms of this fatal disease may be slight, but do not fail to heed them if you value your life.

A nervous, weak, weary feeling, giddiness, swimming of head, strange faint feelings, trembling, sinking sensation, coldness of feet and legs, fluttering or palpitation of heart, feeling of apprehension, anxiety, drowsiness, dizziness, sleeplessness, nights.

Neglect of these symptoms will result in heart failure, spasms or neuralgia of the heart, or death.

The grip, owing to its weakening effect upon the nerves, has left thousands upon thousands of weak hearts in its train.

If you use the great nerve and heart remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, when the first symptoms appear, it will prevent all danger of heart failure. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and its use offers the only sure hope of curing this terrible disease and averting the fatal result. Druggists sell it for $1.00.

"I was troubled with heart disease. Some mornings I would be surprised when I awoke and found myself alive, for I expected a sudden death any moment. I bought a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and must say that it has rapidly brought me to health and strength. I have now taken four bottles and call myself cured, and I must certainly say that it is the most wonderful remedy I have ever used."

"J. J. COMMERFORD, "131 Main street, Brockton, Mass."

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call or write him about your case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice etc., will be returned free.

New Phase of the Factional Fight.

NEWSPAPER, FLA., Nov. 30.—Another phase of the factional anti-fight in the county was brought to light to-day in the refusal of State Treasurer Triay to receive some two thousand dollars collected by County Collector Johnson, in this (Duval) county, and forwarded last week. Triay took the ground that, as Johnson was removed by the Governor in October, all taxes collected by him since then were illegally collected, and the citizens were liable for a second payment. The collector's money was therefore returned. Johnson has refused to deliver the office to E. W. Giffen, the Governor's appointee, and Fleming has threatened extreme measures.
